The Buckhorn Baseball team picture

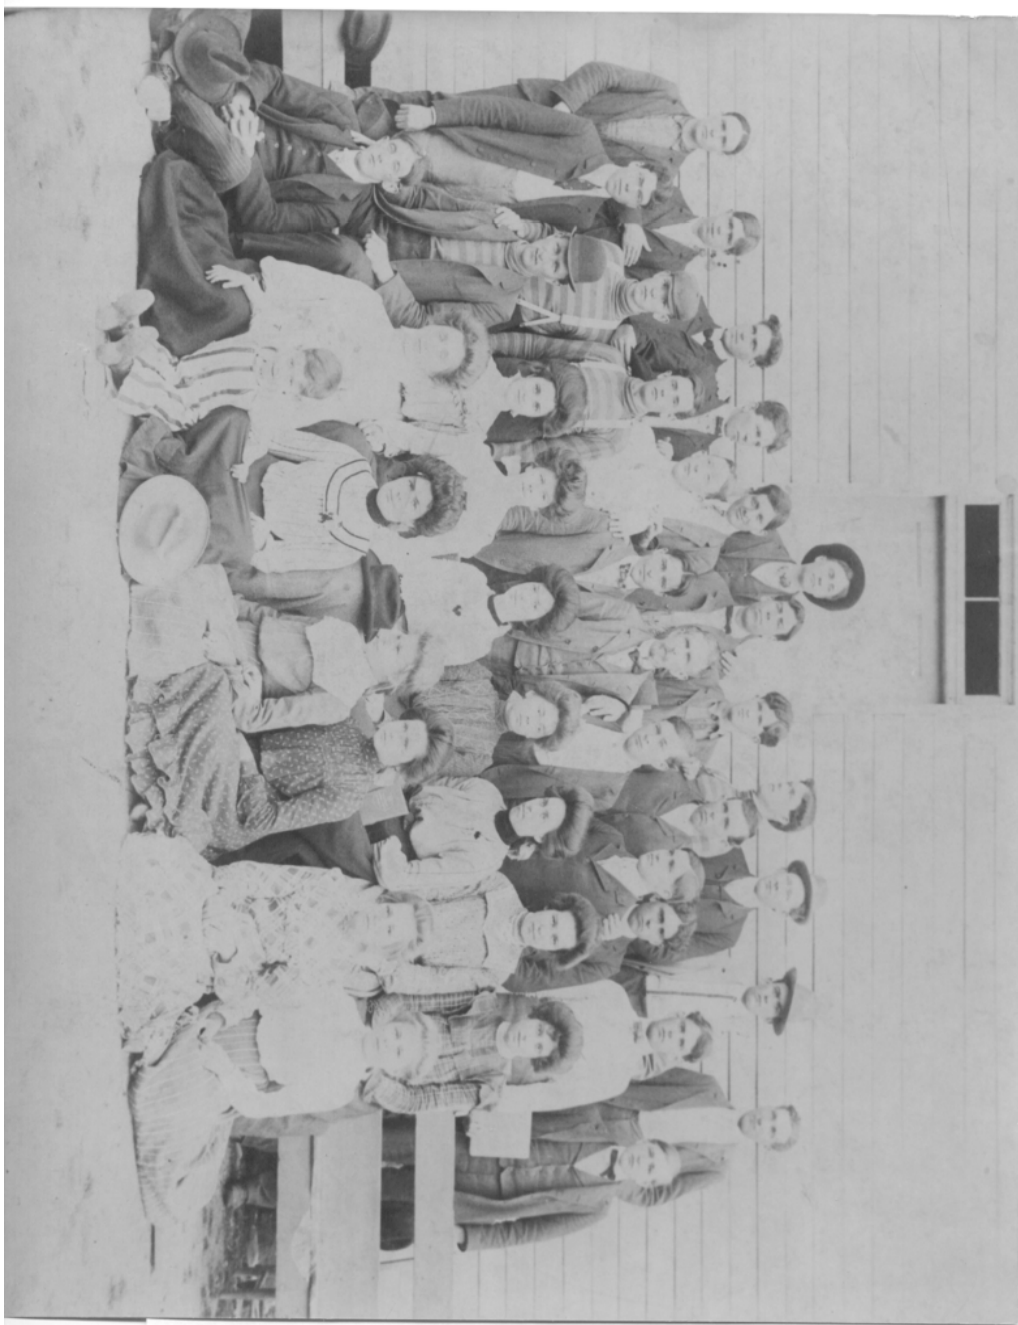

The Buckhorn Baseball Team of around 1915. Teammates first row: Jasper Darnell, Ben Graham, Sid Whitener, Henry McKelvy. Second row: Willie Darnell, Charley Mosier, Richard Huel, Arthur Hovis, and Arther Ennis.

The story goes that Sid told a new comer he would throw a certain ball to him just to break him in but he struck him out to tease him instead.

The Gravelton Concordia College ended in June 30 1893. Rev. S.M. Wagner had 5 teachers who were paid $785. They had 49 students which 37 attended regularly. There was a library of 215 books worth around $75. The College was established 1876 but they skipped in 1886. One of the first teachers was possibly J. G. Babh. Later the records state that in 1903 Concordia had L.M. Wagner and 2 teachers with 65 students and no library. From the archives on school records in Jefferson City.

We don't have too much on this picture. Carrie Stoup is in the whiter hat and Gertie Church Hovis is in the checkered dress.
